

BIOGRAPHY

Chris Conde, Regional Vice President, Northeast Region

Chris Conde is regional vice president, Northeast Region, for Core & Main LP, a leading distributor of waterworks and fire protection infrastructure products in the U.S.

Conde is a change leader and early adopter of implementation management. His broad range of business contributions most recently include strategy execution and driving process improvements as a director for the Central Region. Conde brings a growth mindset to his leadership role accommodating continued development in the Northeast and maintaining Core & Main's dedication to its customers and local teams.

Conde has 20 years of company experience having started his career as a sales management trainee with an earlier iteration of the company, Hughes Supply, in 2002. Conde completed his MBA with honors through the Jack Welch Management Institute in 2019 and earned his bachelor's degree in business administration and marketing from Bowling Green State University in 2002.
